

"It's fun to watch the bride-to-be pull all the necessary pieces to create what she has in mind from our inventory," Shirley says. "We own everything and guarantee that what you select will be at your wedding."

Crossroads Fine Linens & Party Rentals owner Shirley Kavanaugh is the fairy godmother behind the dream. She has assembled a vast, one-of-a-kind collection of top-quality linens, chair ties, china, crystal, flatware, table accessories, centerpieces, tables, chairs, garden furniture and other decorative accessories to match each bride’s style.

Shirley’s timeless approach to decorating puts brides at ease. Her collection reflects her impeccable taste for aesthetically pleasing items, including the latest in chiffon table coverings imported from Belgium and hand-sewn by Shirley.

Crossroads easily accommodates any size and style of wedding, from a casual gathering to an elegant celebration. Shirley carries table settings for 600. Hand-tied napkins, European dinner forks and other hard-to-find items are all available, along with tall vases, tablebras and other unique centerpieces. For a truly customized rental experience, visit Crossroads Fine Linens & Party Rentals. You’ll find the decorative items you need to create a celebration . . . in just your style.
